

Friday 24 October

Opening Festival Reception, 7.30pm 2nd Presbyterian Church Hall

Come and enjoy some light refreshments as you discover a little of what this year's festival has in store. Hear some fabulous musicians and meet some of the performers. Don't miss this as you start to feel part of our musical weekend.

www.secondsaintfield.org.uk

Open-Mic @ Saints, open late

Love Food? Love Music? Love Saints... Enjoy the musically friendly ambience of Saints Café which will be open throughout the day. But as the daylight fades, Kevin will set up his trusty microphone and welcome all who feel inspired to entertain us.

Night Time Jazz

The Rosie Bar, 8.30pm

Have you ever entered through the unassuming front door of The Rosie Bar? Make tonight the night and discover a wonderful space beyond the bar with a welcoming, friendly atmosphere as you enjoy some easy listening music to help you unwind at the end of another busy week. Eamon's Jazz Trio will be there to set your feet tapping and we're sure you'll be humming along before you know it.

Music Nights at The Rowallane Inn

The regular Friday night slot of live music in this lively bar. Tonight they host Stevie Johns so be sure to call in.

www.facebook.com/TheRowallaneInn

Live Music at the White Horse

The White Horse welcomes you to call by and enjoy some live music until late.

musiciansofsaintfield@gmail.com

Saturday 25 October

Toddlers' Music Time, 10am

2nd Presbyterian Church Hall

Following the success of last year's Toddlers' Music Time, we invite mums and dads to bring their little ones (up to 4 years of age) to a morning of fun through music. Booking is essential for this event with a maximum of 10 children. To enquire or make a booking please email us.

This session will be skilfully led by the lovely Charlotte King who has many years of experience running similar music sessions.

www.facebook.com/CharlotteKingMusic

Come And Play, 2pm to 4pm

Academy Primary School

An event for Primary School Children to try out a variety of musical instruments under the enthusiastic guidance of David Preston. This was a very popular event last year and this year there will also be short musical performances by children from local primary schools.

Afternoon Tea at No.1 Todd's Hill

Enjoy a soothing hour sipping tea and nibbling on Ann's delightful treats as the music wafts through the rooms beside the decadent Norr & Brown Chocolate Room. Booking is essential, available at the Tea Room.

www.norrandbrown.co.uk

Singer Songwriter Demo-Doc, 3pm

Academy Primary School

School students, aged 11 to 18 who write and perform their own songs, are invited to submit mp3 demo recordings of their songs via our email address. At this event a panel of experts from various areas of the Music Industry will be on hand to offer support and advice as we listen to each new song. All are welcome to attend this event and the best song of the day will be offered a broadcast on BBC Radio Ulster. Please note that all entries must be submitted by email before Saturday 18 October.

Classic Tunes: Clap When You Know It! AYC Hall, 3pm

Come and enjoy the world's best loved tunes - Classical to Coldplay, Mozart to Metallica with La Scála Strings, Flautist Richard Douglas and the sublime voice of Nuala Murray. The chief aim is the relaxed atmosphere - children are particularly welcome and they won't be ssh'd! There will be tasty refreshments and an opportunity to chat with the performers. Warning - this is not a regular Classical Recital: be prepared to enjoy yourself!

www.scalastrings.co.uk

The King Of Instruments, 2pm to 4pm 2nd Presbyterian Church

Call in to the church and have a go on their Phoenix Pipe Organ. Meet Stephen, the organ builder, and listen as he demonstrates this mightiest of instruments.

www.phoenix-ni.org

Supper at Saints, 7.30pm

The second opportunity to enjoy the craic and ceòl of Saints Café. Booking is essential for this event where you will enjoy the tastiest of treats, both gastronomically and musically. More information and reservations available at the café.

www.facebook.com/SaintsCafeAndDeli

Music Nights at The Rowallane Inn

The regular Saturday night slot of live music in the Rowallane Inn. Tonight they play host to Just Adam.

Traditional Irish Folk Music Session

The White Horse

The White Horse welcomes you to enjoy some Traditional Irish Music this evening. Tapping out the tunes will be the magnificent four-piece Lonesome George.

www.whitehorsesaintfield.com

For further details on any of the events including booking a slot for the Toddlers' Music Time or sending a demo song for the Demo-Doc, please email

musiciansofsaintfield@gmail.com

Most of the events are free for everyone to enjoy. A voluntary donation for the festival events would be appreciated at any of the events.

HarFest is kindly sponsored by Down District Council and supported by the Saintfield Development Association. It exists to encourage musicians and music-making in our village. All musicians and music lovers are welcome to play a part and shape future musical events.

www.facebook.com/saintfieldharfest

www.discover saintfield.com

Saintfield Music Festival

Friday 24 & Saturday 25 October

Venues throughout the village

Free events for all tastes and ages

Kindly supported by

