

Art at the Stile

Following on from Friday evening's introduction to Contemporary Art, the Stile will be open throughout the day for you to walk in and enjoy the quietness of this beautiful setting with art by leading contemporary artists.

Music Nights at The Rowallane Inn

The regular Saturday night slot of live music in the Rowallane Inn. Tonight they play host to Dreamz as well as hosting an Open Darts Competition.

The Big Family Ceilidh Night, 7.30pm 2nd Presbyterian Church Hall

To celebrate the amazing successes of Northern Ireland athletes at the World Transplant Games in Argentina, raise the profile of organ donation and have an opportunity to support the RVH Liver Support Group, Saintfield hosts the social event of the year: a toe-tapping Ceilidh led by the Alastair Scott Ceilidh Band, Northern Ireland's premiere Ceilidh Band. You will love the mix of Irish and Scottish tunes and Saints Café will treat us to some refreshments at half time so you can continue to dance the night away! This is an event for all the family; young and older alike. Please pick up a ticket for this event from Saints on the Main Street for only £1 to help us plan for catering.

www.alastairscott.com

Alan Scott @ The White Horse

The White Horse welcomes you to enjoy Saintfield's own singer-songwriter Alan Scott www.whitehorsesaintfield.com

Sunday 25 October

Classics By Candlelight, 7pm Saintfield Parish Church

Saintfield can be proud of the quality of musicians who live around this part of the world and this evening brings together world class performers who live right on our doorstep. Featuring 13-year-old Tom Myles (clarinet), Zuzanna Pyrc (violin), David Strange (viola), David McCann (cello), Michael Harrison (piano/harpsichord) under the supreme skill of Richard Douglas (flute). Come and enjoy an evening of the very best of classical music. Light refreshments will be served. Suggested donation of £5 at the door with children and students free.

Garth Brooks Tribute Act, 8pm to Late The Rowallane Inn

Johnny Brooks, Ireland's Number One Tribute to Country Music Legend, Garth Brooks. Tickets are available from The Rowallane Inn.

Front Cover, detail from 'The Mournes' by Stephen McClean

Thanks, also, to CES Quarry for their support of our events

CES Quarry Products

T: 028 9751 9494
www.cesquarryproducts.com

Saintfield Music Festival

Friday 23 to Sunday 25 October

Venues throughout the village

Music for our whole community

Kindly supported by Saintfield Development Association

For further details, please email:
musiciansofsaintfield@gmail.com

discoversaintfield.com

Friday 23 October

Contemporary Art Exhibition, 6pm-8pm

Antiques at the Stile, Main Street

Whether you consider contemporary art to be the ultimate vehicle for expression or random splashes of a paintbrush, call in to meet the artists and take in the works of art in this stylish setting in the heart of the village.

www.antiquesatthestile.com

Ivan Black's One Man Show, 8pm

Saintfield Church of Ireland Hall

One of Northern Ireland's best and most loved musicians will entertain us with a variety of music and chat to open our 3rd Saintfield Music Festival. Ivan Black, from Saintfield, is a composer, performer and teacher who is constantly in demand having played in some of the greatest venues around the world from the Ulster Hall to St Patrick's Cathedral New York...and now Saintfield, County Down. Suggested donation £5 at the door.

www.ivanblack.net

Local Artists Exhibition Launch, 6-9pm

Top Floor Art Gallery, Main Street

Climb the stairs of Agar Antiques to discover a treasure trove of creativity. This is a superb opportunity to enjoy the work of local artists at the top of the town.

www.topfloorart.com

We are grateful to Top Floor Art Gallery for sponsoring the prizes for the schools' Sights of Saintfield Drawing Competition

Open-Mic @ Saints, open late

Love Food? Love Music? Love Saints... As daylight fade, enjoy the musically friendly ambience of Saints Café as Kevin sets up his trusty microphone and welcomes all who feel inspired to entertain us.

Music Nights At The Rowallane Inn

The regular Friday night slot of live music in this lively bar. Tonight they host Stevie Johns so be sure to call in.

Live Music at the White Horse

The White Horse welcomes you to call by and enjoy some live music until late.

Saturday 24 October

Squiggles and Giggles, Childrens' Music

The Rowallane Hub

10am - up to 4 years of age

11am - 4 to 7 years of age

This has been a highlight of musical activity at our HarFest events and we invite mums and dads to bring their little ones (up to 7 years of age) to a morning of fun through music. Booking is essential for this event. To enquire or make a booking please email us. Kelsey has been running Squiggles and Giggles in the Hub since the summer time and this will serve as an excellent taster session for some of her drama and musical fun.

www.squigglesandgigglesparty.com

The Big Bash, 2pm to 5pm

2nd Presbyterian Church Hall

Three 40minute percussion sessions for children (aged 7 to 14). These noisy sessions will be led by skilled musician Gordon Cobain, a percussion tutor with the Education Authority Orchestra. Each session will commence on the hour, so arrive early for your chance to take part. Everyone gets to play an instrument!

Afternoon Tea at No.1 Todd's Hill

Enjoy a soothing hour sipping tea and nibbling on Ann's delightful treats as the music of Von Day, DANI and Emily Rose Conlon wafts through the rooms beside the decadent Norr & Brown Chocolate Room. Booking is essential, available at the Tea Room.

Of Sight And Sound - Afternoon Recital

AYC Hall, 3pm

Come and enjoy some of the best songs from local singer, Mairead Healy (one of the Leading Ladies) and the chilled out acoustic guitar performances of Gavin Ferris (voted Belfast's Best Busker). The atmosphere is relaxed and children are particularly welcome - they wont be ssh'd! Between each musical performance there will be some popular local artists displaying their art for you to enjoy. There will be tasty refreshments and an opportunity to chat with the performers and artists as well as pick up a few artistic bargains!

Saintfield Development Association is registered in Northern Ireland as a company (NI615667), registered with The Charity Commission for Northern Ireland (NIC103001) and registered with HM Revenue & Customs (NI00201)