

Saintfield Easter Bunny Trail

Start hunting for the bunnies at Hazel's Newsagents. Keep an eye out for the bunny footprints along the way to guide you. Note down the letters you find on the bunnies to find out their names. When you have unscrambled the letters and have the names you can collect a chocolate prize at the newsagents.

CLUES:

- 1.Run on down to the bottom of the street and search a side garden for a bunny who likes flowers.
- 2.Across the road a bunny is trying to buy a house!
- 3.Who is nibbling on some lunch?
- 4.Someone is very early for church and is waiting to get inside the lovely green garden.
- 5.A greedy bunny hopped on up to munch on sausages at the Square.

Now unscramble your first bunny name.

_____ A type of flower

MORE CLUES:

6. Look around for a lazy bunny who has plonked down in a giant black flower container.
7. Go further on up the road and keep hunting for a bunny who likes to climb .
8. Old Mr. McBriar has been chatting to a bunny in his shop window.
9. Sly Mr. Fox has a Fair View of a fashionable bunny.
10. You're doing well - so head around the corner and stop to spy. Who is getting their bunny hair cut!
11. Hop along to a busy market place where a bunny is feeding his face!
12. You better be nifty to catch this last thrifty bunny who is lodging his piggybank down at the corner.

Unscramble this set of letters for the 2nd bunny name

_____ A noisy rabbit